

Vaccination Policy

There are no vaccinations required National Aviation Academy; however, NAA encourages students to speak with a doctor about the risk of not having proper vaccinations when spending time with groups of people such as public shopping areas, schools, and shared living spaces. Medical professionals generally recommend vaccinations including meningitis and hepatitis.